

VOCABULARY

A. Match the words that go together to form appropriate collocations.

voluntary	fun
sense of	community
take	care
local	humour
have	work

B. Fill in the gaps with the right collocations above.

- Hayat is an active person. She always does in hospitals and other institutions.
- Our has launched a project to build a stadium.
- My uncle has a good He always tells jokes.
- They of their little sister whenever their parents go shopping.

C. Give the correct form of the words in brackets

- Reducing the rate of drop-outs in Morocco will be an important (achieve)
- NGOs receive (finance) help depending on their activities.
- Fatima will get (promote) for her hard work.
- Many NGOs contribute to the (develop) of citizenship values.

GRAMMAR

A. Rewrite the following sentences as suggested.

- “I have already read that novel” Rebecca said
Rebecca said
- “What is the problem?” John said
John asked me
- Don’t shout at your sister” My mother said
My mother warned me
- “Go to bed” the mother said
The mother ordered her kids
- “You should revise your lessons” the teacher said
The teacher advised his students
- “Why don’t we go for a picnic” Ahmed said
Ahmed suggested
- Emma didn’t save enough money. She couldn’t buy a computer.
If Emma
- We didn’t do much to save the environment.
We wish we

FUNCTIONS / COMMUNICATION

A. Match these sentences with their appropriate functions

Sentences	Functions
1. Let’s go camping in Agadir this summer, shall we?	a. making complaint b. expressing agreement c. making a suggestion d. expressing regret
2. I wish I hadn’t come here. If only I’d listened to my mother’s advice!
3. I share your point. Life on this planet will impossible if we don’t do something about the environment.
4. I’m sorry to say this, but we find it quite distressing that you throw garbage in the street.

B. Respond to the following situations as suggested.

Your friend: Most of the streets here in Guelmim need repairing.

You: (express agreement)

Fatima: Living in the city is very pleasant.

You: (express disagreement)